Automate your customer journey to benefit...

1. Your customers
2. Your company
3. You

Here To There

The process I'm sharing today

---

Mindsets

1. Holistic
2. Multi-channel
3. Rooted in respect

Holistic

---

Think about the entire customer journey

Multi-Channel

---

Go beyond email

Rooted in respect

---

Choose what's best for the customer

---

Mindsets

1. Holistic
2. Multi-channel
3. Rooted in respect

The process summed up

---

Your customers are on a journey. Your job as a lifecycle marketer is to understand that journey, create a remarkable experience across multiple channels, and automate it.

Step 1

Define the key events in the customer journey

Introducing

The Customer Journey Framework

Stranger

“I have no idea who you are”

Lead

“I’m interested in buying. Maybe now, but probably later”

Customer

“I bought”

Repeat customer

“I’m happy, I’ll buy again”

Promoter

“I love this company. I’m gonna tell my friends about it”

Define Customer Journey Events

Stranger

Gives you their email.

Lead

Buys your product or service.

Customer

Buys again.
Upgrades.
Renews.

Repeat customer

Refers their friends.

Promoter

More Detailed Customer Journey Events

Stranger

Strangers become leads via organic and paid channels. They opt-in, download content, or attend an event.

Lead

Leads become customers by making their first purchase, or buying a subscription.

Customer

Customers become repeat customers by making a second purchase or keeping their subscription.

Repeat customer

Repeat customers become promoters by referring their friends or writing a five-star review.

Promoter

Step 2

Choose the relevant channels for each event

Channels to consider

---

- Email
- Push notifications
- Text messages
- Phone calls
- In-person interactions
- Direct mail
- Gifts
- Chat
- Retargeting
- Social

	In-person	Email	Push	Text	Phone	Mail	Gift	Chat
Downloads lookbook		X
Browses product page		X	X					X
Visits in-person store	X
Downloads the app, signs up with their email		X
Downloads the app, doesn't give email			X
Calls customer support					X
Joins rewards program		X		X
Abandons cart		X	X			X
Makes their first purchase		X
Completes third purchase		X
Finishes tenth purchase							X

Think multi-channel

Step 3

Create an automation blueprint showing the whole experience

Back of the napkin example

Fleshed Out Example

The “I have to keep it a secret” example

The 7 automations every business needs

---

1. Follow up with new leads
2. Nurture leads into customers
3. Onboard new customers
4. Turn first-time buyers into repeat buyers
5. Woo repeat buyers into promoters
6. Reengage stale leads
7. Win back lost customers

Promoter

Step 4

Stitch together your marketing tool stack

Tool stack example

Types of data living in your tool stack

---

- Demographic
- Engagement
- CRM

Step 5

Prioritize the blueprint based on company goals

---

Buckets

1. New
2. Refresh
3. Experiments

Step 6

Build each automation one-by-one,
then rinse & repeat

Rule of thumb

---

Make the best possible automation you can at this moment in time

Use heatmaps to make content decisions

---

Step 7

Launch, learn, and test

---

Analytics layers

1. Program
2. Automation
